testimonials

"Denny Chipollini's presentation was nothing short of tremendous. I find it simply amazing the accident, which changed his life, actually molded him into the positive inspirational force that he has become today".

— U.S. Customs Service

"Getting to hear Denny's story was very inspirational. By raising my awareness around differences, I have a better understanding of the differential treatment of 'groups'. And with that awareness I can take action. Thanks for making a difference in my life and in my work".

— Sean Levitt,
VP of Learning Development,
Wachovia
